AUDITIONS (5):

EMERGENCY CASTING NOTICE FOR ARTISAN THEATRE:

The Artisan Theatre is doing the Chekhov classic, "Uncle Vanya", from September 18 through November 1 (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights...NO Sunday matinee). We had an actor drop out due to a family illness, and to need to re-cast right away!!!

This is a brand new translation of the original Russian language version, directed by Mickey Wever. The part is the character of "Waffles". He's a rather comical figure, who also serves as the minstrel. The line load is not heavy, but he appears in every act.

Rehearsal is Monday through Thursday nights from 6:30-9:30, with additional Saturday run-throughs in September. The Artisan Theatre is located at 1901 Del Paso in Sacramento.

Interested parties should contact Jan Lindman at 916-723-1888, or 916-367-9638. The Artisan is proud to be a SARTA Theatre, and offers a special discount for members!

THE FALCON’S EYE THEATRE AUDITIONS:

Coming this fall from The Falcon’s Eye, please join us for our second full-length mainstage production from Theatre Arts at Folsom Lake College. It’s Lanford Wilson’s suspenseful crime drama, “The Rimers of Eldritch” directed by Theatre Arts faculty member David Harris. A small Midwestern town is forced to face the consequences of two shocking crimes in this eerie drama. The lives of the citizens of Eldritch are exposed during a draining murder trial, as the story shifts between past and present events until the puzzle is complete.

Auditions for “Rimers of Eldritch” will be held Monday, September 15, at 7 pm on a first come first served basis. Callbacks will be held Tuesday, September 16 and Friday, September 19, at 7:00 pm by invitation only. Auditions will take place on the campus of Folsom Lake College, 10 College Parkway, Folsom, 95630. One dollar parking permits are available at kiosks located throughout the parking lots. Come to the Community Room also known as FL1 Aspen Hall room 20 to sign in for auditions. The Community Room is located near the main entrance of campus, on the southwest corner of building FL1 Aspen Hall. It is requested that you bring a photo and resume, if available. These items are not required.

“Rimers of Eldritch” contains a large and diverse cast. All ages over 16 are needed. We are looking for strong, experienced actors from the community as well as college students and adult newcomers to the art. Students of Los Rios may peruse a copy of the play at the library reserve desk. High school students must have special approval to participate.

“Rimers of Eldritch” rehearses October 6 to November 6, evenings and Saturday afternoons and opens on November 7. Performances continue from November 7 to November 23, Friday and Saturday nights at 8 pm and Sunday afternoons at 2 pm. Be prepared to provide all conflicts with this schedule on the first day of auditions. There are absolutely no conflicts allowed during the week prior to opening, nor with any performances. There are no exceptions.

Tickets: $Free- Call or e-mail for reservations at 916-524-3108; sadams@csus.edu.

Inspired by the work of Anna Deavere Smith, this production presents a documentary style of theatre to tell the stories of eleven individuals who deal with this disease on a daily basis by mirroring their voices and mannerisms from personal interviews. The performance process features actors recreating excerpts from verbatim responses of the interviewees to capture the true essence of the subjects by incorporating every pause, stutter, vocal inflection, and gesture into performance.

Still without a cure, the issue of Alzheimer's disease continues to touch the lives of millions worldwide. In this production you will hear stories from early stage victims holding out for a cure and who, along with their spouses, are trying to cope with the every day challenges of fighting the disease. You will also hear accountings from a noted Neurologist and other professionals in the field who express not only their approach to working with family, caregivers, and patients but also some personal dealings with their own family members and friends who have been touched by the disease.

VALLEJO MUSIC THEATRE AND THE WEDNESDAY NIGHT CELEBRATION'S:

Vallejo Music theatre invites you to come out and play. Summer is here and Vallejo Main Street's 9th annual Wednesday Night Celebration is in full swing. Join us downtown on Georgia Street for six more weeks of fun! The free family event runs every Wednesday night through August 27 from 4 to 8:30 pm.

Where else would you find live music, starting at 6 pm with great bands like the Alvon on July 23 and California Cowboys on August 6. Of course, the Farmer's Market will be there, as well as food, crafts and lots of children's activities with GVRD including face painting, jump house, and air brush tattoos. The classic cars will be back along with some special added attractions.

Visit our web site at www.VallejoMainStreet.com for a complete band line up and more information. Vallejo Main Street is a non-profit organization working for the revitalization of Downtown Vallejo. For more information, contact Lori Ann at 707-557-6246.

August 22: The Gaslighters Theatre Group of Vacaville presents "Stuck Fast in Holdemat Bay" or "The Showboat Must Go On."

A Musical Melodrama in two acts, written by Alice McDonald with music & lyrics by Carol Zadnik. This melodrama has been brought back to life with tender loving care by Vacaville residents Mary Muehlenbruch, Carrie Zadnik and Staci Arriaga. Admission for dinner and the show is $20 per person. Reception begins at 6 pm, dinner at 7 pm and the show goes up after dinner. Our characters embark on the Delta Area Riverboat Transit (D.A.R.T.) at Holdemat Bay headed to Sacramento. When the paddlewheel breaks and cannot be fixed they find themselves Stuck Fast in Holdemat Bay. To keep his crew happy and paid, Capt'n Sandy agrees to make the riverboat a showboat casting crew members and passengers in the show. Audience members will enjoy shouting out the traditional "hiss" and "boo" as the dastardly Herkimer J. Scapegrace (played by Oz Angst) tries to capture the lovely Felicity Fairheart (played by Annie Muehlenbruch), young, pure and virtuous. Other cast members include Roy Morris as Gallant Hard, Cathy Knowles as Natasha, Paul Knowles as Capt'n Sandy, Naomi Vergara as Jenny, Logan Capps as Sharkey, and Eric Oparka, Rebecca Zadnick, Chloe Angst, Courtney Kowles, Will Brown, Alex Valenze and Natalie Angst.

September 5: AN EVENING WITH BUDDY NASH

A winner in VMT's Best of the Bay Talent Search. A multi-talented singer from West Virginia, Buddy's dad was an entertainer and radio/TV personality; his mother a very talented keyboard musician and teacher. Performing since age three he has an extensive background in live entertainment including radio, TV, musical theater, live stage, club, restaurant and hotel environments. He was a featured performer with WSM Radio and TV in Nashville and a guest star on the Flatt & Scruggs Grand Ole Opry syndicated TV show. His repertoire includes folk, pop, jazz, ballads and show tunes. He plays both piano and guitar to accompany his vocal talents. Now involved in video and music productions Buddy has agreed to come out of retirement for VMT's growing Friday Night Supper Club crowd.

September 19: BACKER'S NIGHT FOR "PIRATES OF PENZANCE."

Join us to raise funds for this whacky funny Gilbert & Sullivan famous opera which will be produced at the theater company's digs at 823 Marin Street for all performances.

Several songs from the show will be previewed to give the audience a taste of this comic opera.
